

CAREERS

Associates Committee

The Associates Committee provides a forum for discussion of firm policies and practices affecting associates. Acting as a liaison between associates and the firm's Executive Committee, the Associates Committee helps to monitor and make recommendations regarding firm matters that impact associates, including hiring and retention policies, quality of life issues, staffing needs, technological support services, practice development programs, new associate orientation, summer associate and new associate mentoring, and compensation issues.