

2017 Corporate Governance Harvard Roundtable

EVENT | 10.25.2017

Harvard Law School (Cambridge, MA)

On October 24-25, 2017, Olshan Activist & Equity Investment Partner and Co-Chair Andrew Freedman participated in the Harvard Roundtable on Corporate Governance. The annual event brings together prominent participants with a wide range of perspectives on corporate governance, including issuers, institutional investors, directors, advisers, public officials, and academics, for an off-the-record discussion. This year the roundtable will focus on the increasing interest of investors in social responsibility and environmental matters, board composition and other current topics that are expected to be significant for the current proxy season.
