

Media Reports on Olshan Hiring Insurance Coverage Law Practice Chair Anthony Crawford

MEDIA MENTION | 10.22.2025

Bloomberg Law (subscription required), Attorney at Law Magazine and Westlaw Today (subscription required) have highlighted Anthony Crawford, who has joined Olshan as Chair of the firm's Insurance Coverage Law Practice. Anthony has over 13 years of experience managing high-profile insurance cases for policyholders in state and federal courts, mediations, and arbitrations and has secured more than $100 million in settlements and judgments for a diverse client base. Prior to his legal career, he served as an officer in the United States Marine Corps for almost 12 years as a helicopter pilot and held several positions specializing in project management and operations training. "I'm excited to join a team that's focused on enhancing value for their clients, and I look forward to offering my strategic insights to drive momentum further," Anthony said. "Olshan has an exceptional reputation for driving results and innovating for clients, and I am honored to contribute to this culture in the years ahead."
